

Shoot Me Down

Original Song by: Lil Wayne

Sonnet by: Mark Curcio

Open up your hearts people and listen,
If you let me you won't regret me.

Listen to my words and watch them glisten,
If you're shootin' for the star, just shoot me.

I am not kind of hot, I am Sauna,

My own history is in the making.

I sweat money, the bank is my shower,

If I am like bread, then I am baking.

There is no more bandana on my dome,

I took it off and put it in my back pocket.

Watch me stand on the world as I sit on a throne,

Throw me the ball , watch what I do with it.

Please don't shoot me down cause I am flying.

Please don't shoot me down cause I'm not dying.
